Is a very prevalent and exceedingly disagreeable disease liable if neglected, to develop into serious consumption. Being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, effecting a radical and per-manent cure of catarrh in even its most sever forms. Made only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Possibility of a Tie in the Next Senate. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.-The Star last evening figures out a probable tie in the Senate after the 3d of next March. It says: "On March 3d the terms of sixteen Republicans and nine Democratic senators will expire. Of the six-teen Republicans who will retire fif-teen will certainly be succeeded by men of the same party. Messrs. Sher-man, Aldrich and Edmunds have been man, Aldrich and Edmunds have been re-elected, and the legislatures of Connecticut, Minnesota, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin are Republican. The Democrats lose of the nine whose terms expire—Fair, of Nevada—and are sure of the remainder so that if the Legislatures of California, Indiana and New Jersey prove to be Democratic, the result of the change in the Senate after the 3d of March will be a net loss of three to the Republicans, a Democrat having been Republicans, a Democrat having been chosen to succeed Mahone from Virginia. The present Senate stands forty-one Republicans, thirty-four Demo-crats, and one Readjuster (Riddleber-ger). But Senator Van Wyck comes ger). But Senator Van Wyck comes back from Nebraska as a people's Rep-resentative. He made his fight before the whole people and won on an issue of opposition to corporations. During his present term he has not hesitated and under the conditions of his re-election he may be more independent still.

Leaving Van Wyck and Riddleberger out of the count, the next Senate will stand, provided the Democrats secure the three doubtful states mentioned—thirty-seven Republicans, thirty-seven Democrats. Thus Messrs. Van Wyck and Riddleberger would hold the balance of power. In connection with this probable solution, it is a fact worth mentioning that both Van Wyck and Riddleberger have given evidence and Riddleberger have given evidence of a kindly feeling for the administraon occasions to antagonize his party, and under the conditions of his re-elec-

In the event of any conflict between the Executive and the Senate, the two votes from Nebraska and Virginia would determine the issue. Van Wyck and Riddleberger would have it in their power, by co-operation with the Democrats, to organize the Senate, or should Van Wyck vote with the Re-publicans and Riddleberger with the Democrats on the question of organization, there would be a tie, and there is no Vice President to throw the deciding vote.

A DARING JUMP.

Donovan Leaps from Niagara Bridge.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. Nov. 7.— Lawrence Donovan, of New York, who recently jumped from the Brooklyn bridge into the East river, jumped from the new suspension bridge, a little east of the center, at five minutes before this morning. He came from down, feet foremost and came up somewhat dazed, but struck out for the boat, in which were Messrs. Haley and Drew. He was taken in and stimulants given him, and was found not severely in-jured. One rib is probably broken and his hip is bruised. He said before he got out of the water that he would not jump again for $1,000,000. Afterwards he said he would jump next summer for $1,000. He said he wanted to jump at Rochester and then quit the business.

MAJORITY OF STATES.

Democrats Will Have a Majority if Election of President is Thrown Into the House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Republicans have been boasting that as a result of the late Congressional elections they would have a majority of State delegations which would enable them to elect a President if there should be no choice by the next electoral college. It seems that their boasting has been premature and that a majority of the delegations will be Democratic. Of the delegations will be Democratic. Of the thirty-eight States, the Republicans have a majority in the following: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Vermont, Virginia, Wiscousin—17The Democrate will have a majority of the democrate will have

The Democrats will have a majority in the following: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, Tennessee, West

Virginia—19. In Rhode Island there has been no choice by the people and Congressional elections will have to be held over again. In New Hampshire the delegation is equally divided. Conceding Rhode Island to the Republicans the count stands: Democratic States, 19, Republican States, 18, with New Hamp-shire not able to vote either way.

Lost Faith in Physicians.

There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by Sco-vill's Sarsaparilla, or Blood and Liver Syrup, for all diseases of the blood, when the patient had been given up by phy-sicians. It is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public, and as it is prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it should be more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup for all disorders arising from impure blood. It is endorsed by all leading professional men.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

STATE OF OHIO, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.

To the People of Ohio: The President of the United States has appointed Thursday, the 25th inst, to be observed as a day of National thanksgiving.

It is a pleasant duty to call the attention of the people of this State thereto and ask them to rest from labor and devote the day so designated to the worship of Almighty God and to such other deeds and manifestations as may be appropriate to show that devote 825,051 19 thankfulness which, as a Christian peo-437,119 16 ple, we should feel for the loving kind-ness and bounteous mercies with which we are and have been favored.

Our blessings are greater than we can number. We have been spared while others have been overtaken by calamity. We have peace and prosperity; liberty and education are universal and appreciated as essential to good govern-

It is but a duty to both ourselves and our country to acknowledge our de-pendence upon Divine Providence for all these enjoyments and to seek in prayer for their continuance. "Happy is the people whose God is the Lord." In testimony whereof I have subscribed my name and caused to be af-fixed and the great seal of the State at Columbus, the 5th day of November, 1886. J. B. FORAKER.

By the Governor: J. S. Robinson, Secretary of State.

Renews her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay county, Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress." lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed com-pletely all disease and pain."

Thirteen citizens of Blooming Grove township, Richland county, were in-dicted at Mansfield this week for participating in a riot. The circumstances are that Simon Dolph, a resident of that township, had made himself obnoxious by vilely slandering some of the women in the neighborhood. The husbands and friends of the women took the mat-ter into their own hands, and, masking themselves, went to Dolph's house, and taking him to the woods, first strung him up by the neck, and then administered a dose of tar and feathers. Dolph immediately after began civil suit for $20,000 against the thirteen who were indicated. All pleaded not guilty and indicted. All pleaded not guilty and gave bond in the sum of $200 for their
